

Checklist for your doctor's appointment

If you are applying for transitional benefit and your child is ill, we will need documentation from your doctor.

The documentation must state clearly:

- why your child's illness affects your ability to work or be in other occupational activity
- when the child's illness started
- when the doctor expects the child to have recovered
- how much you can work